A thriving art scene coupled with lively nightlife spots has transformed colourful Camberwell into an exciting place to call home; a magnet of creativity that appeals to Londoners of all ages and backgrounds.

Historically, Camberwell's diverse architecture and well-known art schools have drawn in a cool, creative crowd and among its long-term residents are some of UK's best-loved artists, actors and musicians (including Florence Welch of Florence and the Machine).

ECLECTIC FOODIE SCENE

Londoners come from all corners of the capital to experience Camberwell's eclectic foodie scene: take your pick from Greek, South East Asian, Turkish... or fill up on sun-ripened specials in the local Mediterranean delis. Hipster bars and gastropubs set in restored historical buildings offer craft cocktails to accompany electrifying live music sessions.
